LUKE COMBS TO HEADLINE COUNTRY THUNDER MUSIC FESTIVAL AT OSCEOLA HERITAGE PARK

Bailey Zimmerman, Jon Pardi, Russell Dickerson, Priscilla Block, ERNEST and more performing over three days

KISSIMMEE, FL (May 8, 2024)— One of country music’s biggest stars, Luke Combs, will close out a weekend of top tier talent, headlining the Country Thunder Music Festival at Osceola Heritage Park in Kissimmee, Florida on Sunday, October 20. Combs will join Bailey Zimmerman, Jon Pardi, Mitchell Tenpenny, Russell Dickerson, Nate Smith, ERNEST, Priscilla Block and more.

Combs, a country megastar and North Carolina native, is celebrated not just in country music, but across the entire industry. As the first artist to hold the top two positions on the Country Airplay chart, Combs has had multiple smash hits, including his lauded cover of Tracy Chapman’s ‘Fast Car,’ which he performed with Chapman at the Grammy Awards earlier this year. Among countless other accolades, Combs has earned eleven CMA awards, six Billboard Music Awards, and seven Grammy nominations and leads nominees at this year’s ACM Awards with eight nominations. Combs will headline Country Thunder Florida fresh off his record-breaking “Growin’ Up and Gettin’ Old” U.S. stadium tour, which includes back-to-back nights at Los Angeles’ SoFi Stadium, East Rutherford’s MetLife Stadium, Santa Clara’s Levi’s® Stadium and Phoenix’s State Farm Stadium and broke attendance records in each of its first three weekends.

Fans at Kissimmee will have the unique opportunity to see Combs up close and personal. Country Thunder’s Platinum Experience ($625+ fees) and Gold Circle ($350+fees) options guarantee the best spot of the weekend, with exclusive viewing areas right next to the stage! Platinum Experience ticket holders will also experience full-service bars, luxury restrooms, reserved parking, and sunscreen for long hot Florida days. For those not as fond of the great outdoors, Country Thunder’s luxury Glamping experience includes breakfast each morning, queen beds, a cooling unit, and a dedicated concierge. All tickets, camping and hotel options are available now via countrythunder.com.

“Luke is a giant of country music,” said Troy Vollhoffer, CEO of Country Thunder Music Festivals. “We always aim to program for fans of all backgrounds. With a talent of this caliber joining us Sunday night, Country Thunder's long-time devotees and first-time campers alike will round out their weekend on a high."

Since the first Country Thunder in 1996, the festival has become a staple for country music fans and a pilgrimage for some of the most respected acts in the genre. Previous stars who've performed include Blake Shelton, Garth Brooks, Kenny Rogers, Willie Nelson, Tim McGraw, Morgan Wallen, HARDY, Chris Stapleton, Brad Paisley, Jelly Roll, George Strait, Taylor Swift, Dolly Parton, Keith Urban and many more.
